

Professor Jean-Marc BURGUNDER, MD is Professor Emeritus of Neurology at the University of Bern, Switzerland, and a leading expert in movement disorders and neurogenetics. His research focuses on Huntington's disease, Parkinson's disease, and other neurodegenerative disorders, with particular emphasis on translational research and international collaboration. He has authored numerous scientific publications and has made significant contributions to neurological research, education, and the development of European neurology networks.